

Senior Day Brings 1,800 High School Students to STC Campus

College Guides Conduct Tours; Mr. Phillips Talks in Assembly

Students and faculty members of the Northwest State Missouri Teachers College acted as hosts to 1,800 seniors from all corners of this district today, April 3.

Plans had been made for approximately 1,500 seniors, but last minute reservations revealed a total of 1,800 students, according to Dr. O. Mehus, chairman of public relations.

Students Say Senior Day Successful

Interviews With Seniors Bring Comments

Senior Day was highly successful if the expression from the high school seniors can be taken as a barometer of the day's happenings. Reactions from the visitors were written down on scraps of paper by a number of Missourian reporters who interviewed as many as 100 students.

Several seniors did not arrive in Maryville soon enough to take the tours over the campus, but all students voiced their hearty approval to the assemblies, luncheon, dance, and afternoon programs.

Hazel Eichler of Braymer said she liked the College because of its friendly people. "The buildings are nice and college life is as I had expected it," she said.

Betty Utter of Westboro, with dark eyes shining, exclaimed, "College is grand! I'm coming here next year and am going to major in home economics."

Likes Swimming Pool
In speaking for the fifty-eight seniors here Monday from Rock Port, Barbara Graf said, "I think that the girls' dormitory and the swimming pool are the most outstanding features of our college. Aileen White of Jamesport said she liked the dormitory 'because it is so modern.'"

Jennie Adkins of Rosendale told how she was taking violin lessons now from Miss Pentress, and "naturally I like your music department best." Miss Adkins was selected beauty queen of Andrew county last Monday evening.

Marvin Mothershead of Stanberry stated that he thought the biology exhibit was very interesting. "I liked the Biology exhibit most of all," a young girl from Fillmore emphasized.

Came Sixteen Miles
La Veta McQueen of Rushville said "Fifteen of us drove sixty miles for your fine Senior Day. Your experimental school is certainly fine and I hope to major in your primary education department."

Many comments were received on the dance in the West Library, such as: Fredia Barnes, Albany, "Having a fine time dancing"; Irene Riley, Amity, "Oh boys, the music"; and Faye Campbell, Amity, "I think everything is grand and I liked the dance best of all."

Louise Murray of Oregon said she had visited the College before as she has a sister who is a Senior here, and this year "everything gets better and better, especially the orchestra."

"I think Senior Day is nice as well as educational," said Eva Marie Swann of Barnard, and "I am coming to take music next year." Martha Vogt of Stanberry also said she plans to attend here next year.

"Dr. Mehus is one of the most enjoyable persons I have ever met," stated Clara Allen, Union Star.

"The luncheon was fine," said Harold Dean Davis of Graham high school. "I had all I could eat." Paul Robert Warner also of Graham said that he would like to attend school in the new Horace Mann building.

"You have a very beautiful campus of which you should be proud," he added.

Kay Harper of Ridgeway said "I believe I liked the boys' dorms best." Others stating what they liked best about Senior Day follow: Dale Nuckolls, Westboro, "The swimming exhibition"; Ralph Overlay, Maitland, "the music"; Edsel Barnes, Albany, "the dance band"; Dwight Sliger, Rock Port, "Industrial arts building"; William Kneal, Savannah, "I liked the gym best"; Westel Reed, Stanberry, "The new library building"; and Russell Cross, Hopkins, "the women."

Earl Hudson of Darlington said "I really like the girls' dorm." Lotice Garrison of Mound City commented "I am the only one representing our town, but intend to leave my marks, and am tired. Will be here next year taking home economics."

Eight College Debaters Win In Tournament

Defeat Four Inter-Collegiate Debate Teams

Members of the College debate team who participated in the Pi Kappa Delta provincial tournament at Excelsior Springs March 29 to April 1, made a showing worthy of mention. The men's debate team won third although awards were given only for first and second places.

The men's team, composed of Frank Strong and Harold Brueggeman, both sophomores, defeated Drake, the winner of the entire tournament, in the third round. Drake, however, pushed through to the end, their only defeat being to Maryville.

Brueggeman and Strong met Drake again in the semi-finals and were defeated by a two to one decision. In the course of the tournament Maryville men won from West.

bate minister college, who had won six debate tournaments this year and had won sixteen straight debates until they were defeated by Maryville, Drake university, William Penn college and Iowa Wesleyan.

The women's team, composed of Doris Dee Hiles and Margaret Kyle, were eliminated in the third round by the women's team from Drake University. They also went to the finals but lost to Cape Girardeau.

However, during the tournament they defeated Iowa Central and Coe College. The latter was grand champion of the Iowa state women's tournament. After defeating Iowa Central and Coe College, they met Drake and Simpson College and lost to both.

For both Maryville girls this was the first inter-collegiate debate contest in which they had taken part.

Besides those mentioned, the following debaters made the trip: Kenneth Spann, Villisca, Ia.; Eugene McLean, St. Joseph; Mary Frances McCaffery and Mary Ann Busby of Maryville, Dr. J. P. Kelly, chairman of the "department of speech and debate," accompanied the group. He was in charge of the women's extemporaneous speech contest held in connection with the tournament.

The College chorus, under the direction of Mr. Paschal Monk, sang three choruses from "The Messiah," by Handel: "Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs," "And With His Stripes We Are Healed," and "All We Like Sheep Have Gone Astray."

Chain Letters
Are Out, Now its Young Editors

Young editors seem to be the vogue these days. At least after this newspaper published a story about nine-year-old Orion Mehus and his Weekly Notes, the editors have had their attention called to another weekly published by two young sons of two former students of this College.

Robert H. Watson Jr. and Russel Ward Watson, sons of Elvira Ward Watson and Robert Watson, publish each week a four page paper which they call the "King City Leader."

News articles, editorials, cards of thanks, features, advertisements, society notes and personals, make up the columns of the newspaper. A typical story headed "More Quintuplets," follows:

"Not the Canadian quintuplets; but they are quintuplets just the same. The Earl May Seed Company is advertising an apple tree which will grow five different kinds of apples. More than that, the different kinds of apples all grow on one branch of the tree sometimes."

President and Vice-President Elections Soon

STC Nominating Convention to Be on April 26

Now is the time for all good students to come to the realization that the annual spring elections for Student Governing Association officials is near at hand. The nominating convention will be held this year on April 26, according to Richard ShROUT, president of the Student Senate.

Nominees for student president and vice-president must be approved and published in the NORTHWEST MISSOURIAN before they may be nominated from the convention floor. The issue of the MISSOURIAN before the convention will be on April 21.

Approved by Registrar
Before they are published, however, the student president calls attention that names of candidates must be filed and approved by the College registrar as to the necessary qualifications. According to the SGA constitution, an election for these officers must be held within six school days after the nominating convention.

It was also stipulated that at the nominating convention, nominations shall not cease until at least three nominees for both president and vice-president have been made. An exception would be in the event that not three names had been filed previously with the registrar.

Joel Trullinger
Has Ninety Hours Towards Degree?

One thousand five hundred sixty-eight hours, or, for the benefit of those who really count time, 94,080 minutes. That is the record Joel Trullinger holds as official speed patrolman on the College streets.

Trullinger stood near the curve where the Residence Hall walk crosses the street from last June until March 15. He was on the job from 7 until 2:30 o'clock each day with the sole duty of teaching the motorists that the stop sign there wasn't a signal to continue full speed ahead.

Men drivers are by far the most difficult to teach to stop at the crossing, he said. Taxi drivers also were slow to develop the habit of stopping for the crossing.

By way of comparison the 1,568 hours would be equal to a seven and one-half hour course taken nine months a year for three years or ninety hours toward a degree. This is considering the number of hours spent in actual class-room practice. Mr. Trullinger has now taken over the duty of custodian in the new Horace Mann School.

Not quite sixty per cent of STC students participate in educational extra-curricular activities on the campus, and a recommendation that some students be limited to holding too many official positions in campus organizations, form the nucleus of a report made this week by the Student Governing Association.

This seeming paradox, according to Richard ShROUT, president, is important in that College students should realize that there is both a need for stimulation and limitation in regard to such activities.

The report shows that during the Winter quarter there were 376 students, or 41.2 per cent of the total enrollment, who did not participate in any kind of extra-curricular activity. In contrast to this, there were forty-one students belonging to five or more organizations.

Important to Teachers
These are important facts to consider, because increasingly, schools are insisting upon teachers who can do more than teach in the traditional subject fields. They want student leadership in other forms of educational activity, miscalled extra-curricular.

According to a well known educator, Nelson Bossing, University of Oregon, "The ability to direct recreational activities, coach dramatics and class plays, conduct glee clubs and orchestras, lead boys' and girls' scouting, nature study clubs, hiking clubs, camera clubs, book lovers' clubs, science clubs, etc., has become a very important requirement and often is the determining factor in teacher employment."

"The prospective teacher will do well, therefore, to prepare for this form of school activity as well as for the more formal subject matter fields."

Only Few Hold Offices
The SGA report pointed out that 111 students held one or more student offices. This is 12.2 per cent of the Winter enrollment, and 20.7 per cent of those belonging to one or more organizations.

Also thirty-four persons held two or more offices which is 3.7 per cent of the enrollment, and 6.3 per cent of all in the various organizations. Three persons held four of the official positions.

Books Are Not All
According to recent poll of student opinion conducted by the Weekly News Review and The American Observer, which was answered by 125,000 American students, "good work in regular school subjects does not prepare one for a job as he will be prepared by participating in various school activities."

"Character and personality count for more than all can be learned in books."

However the SGA would not lead the student to believe that participation in extra-curricular organizations is all-important, but that prospective teachers should widen their interests to include several of these activities.

They emphasize student interest covering a wide field which will make for physical, cultural and arduous progress.

The World Celebrates the Resurrection of Christ

One of the greatest feasts of the Christian world will be celebrated on next Sunday, Easter, the Day of the Resurrection of Christ from the dead. Throughout the world this feast will be celebrated with great pomp and ceremony and will be the cause of much rejoicing. And there is just cause for this because it proved to a doubting world the divinity of the God-Man. This proof has resulted in great changes in the life of this world and there are those who contend that today's world affairs might not be in such a confused state were the rulers and dictators of our world to take into account the existence of a God and to live up to His teachings and ideals.

With the celebration of this great feast next Sunday, we take this means of extending to each and every reader our sincerest wishes for a Happy and a Blessed Easter and may this Easter mark a new era in the affairs of your life as well as of the world.—P. S.

High School Senior Day Proved to Be a Success

The Seniors of the Northwest district of Missouri have returned to their homes, carrying with them memories and ideas which we hope serve them well in the future. As their hosts for a day we tried to give them a taste of as many sides of the College life as possible. As yet we have not heard anyone complain of or criticize the activities which were staged for the Seniors unless they hated to stop the dance so soon. The exhibits and the tours of the various buildings, particularly the Library, the Horace Mann Laboratory and the N. Y. A. dormitories proved both interesting and instructive.

The assemblies were well received and the specialty numbers by students delighted the entire audiences. Needless to say, the faculty and the students, the entire administration of the College deserves a big vote of thanks and also, to the Seniors we might well extend our appreciation for a good day for they made it pleasure to show them our College and our Campus.

The athletic department with the swimming exhibit and the track meet gave fine exhibitions and regardless of who won the track meet or who was the best swimmer, these provided two of the highlights of the program.—P. S.

Students Must Reckon With The Power of the Press

If students are to find the ways of understanding this queer old world, they must reckon with the force of the newspaper, for it penetrates into every phase of modern life. The power of the newspaper in forming public opinion has not been so great in the last few years. Yet the whole pattern of our civilization is colored by the subtle influence cast by the press. We must recognize its power, and try to understand it.

Many people have concluded that the press today is rather a poor thing. They say the newspapers play up the trivial, sensational and vulgar in the attempt to build up a huge circulation.

Perhaps that fault lies mainly in the readers of the papers. E. W. Scripps once said: "Our one business is to get an audience. Whatever else it is, our newspaper must be excessively interesting, not to the good, wise men and the pure in spirit, but to the great mass of sordid, avaricious humanity. Humanity is vulgar so we must be vulgar. It is coarse; so we must not be refined." This seems to imply that we can have better newspapers if the wiser and more intelligent part of the reading public demand them.

Educators have a great obligation to fulfill in preparing their students in reading newspapers intelligently. Everyone must see that the purpose of newspapers is more than to furnish a few minutes of amusement. Students should learn to read the daily news in a way that will help them to get a clear understanding of the great problems which they will have to act upon some day.

THE SCHOOL TEACHER'S CREED

I believe in boys and girls; the men and women of a great tomorrow, that whatsoever the boy soweth the man shall reap. I believe in the curse of ignorance, in the efficiency of schools, in the dignity of teaching, and in the joy of serving others. I believe in wisdom as revealed in human lives as well as in the pages of the printed books; in lessons taught not so much by precept as by example; in ability to work with the hands as well as to think with the head; in everything that makes life large and lovely. I believe in beauty in the schoolroom, in the home, in the daily life, and in out of doors. I believe in laughter, in love, in faith, in all ideals and distant hopes that lure us on. I believe that every hour of every day we receive a just reward for all we are and do. I believe in the present and its opportunities, in the future and its promises, and in the divine joy of living.—Edwin Osgood Grover, in North Carolina Public School Bulletin, March, 1938.

—J. W. Jones.

Our democratic institutions will be protected and strengthened by such a course if it is faithfully and energetically carried out. We will have a public that will always be ready to oppose any attempt to make the press subservient to the government or any special interest, rather than to the people. Such a public will be ready to make the publishers and editors account for any failure to support the best interests of society as a whole. The readers will refuse to patronize papers that neglect their interests and will force the press to use its power only by the consent of its readers.—J. G.

Stop Hitler Drive Attracts Attention of U. S. Collegians

Students throughout the world have in recent weeks had various opportunities to express their opinions on various national and international problems through different polls taken by student newspapers. In a poll entitled "Parade of Opinion" and conducted by the Associated Collegiate Press, students throughout the nation expressed their opinions on one of the greatest problems in the economic world today, that of the "Stop Hitler" drive. The opinions expressed below are not those of THE NORTHWEST MISSOURIAN, but the article shows the attitudes of many students in other Colleges in the United States.

Collegians last week continued their vigorous denunciations of Hitler and his continued drive against the weaker nations of eastern Europe. Many urge one plan or another for the formation of a stop Hitler movement—a movement that most believe is paramount to the continued life of the democratic nations.

The Oberlin College Review stated the current position of the College newspaper editorial writers in this way: "We cannot censure too severely the weak-kneed bowing and scraping and the magnanimous sacrifices of other people which the French and English governments have made. So long as the desire for peace and our own security is uppermost in our minds, we can hardly hope that more will come out of the rumored four-power conference to stop Hitler than more guarantees."

Many collegians predict that the latest moves of Der Fuehrer are steps in the directions of his downfall. The University of Baltimore Baloo states this position in this way: "For the first time since the beginning of the Third Reich Germany has seized foreigners and not Germans. Germany now has a strong, exceedingly brave minority within its own borders. Any further advance will bring but more foreigners. The first step toward Germany's downfall has been taken, and watch the future."

Of the many plans proposed to stop Hitler, the Duke University Chronicle proposed one of the most comprehensive. Its main points are: 1. Replace Neville Chamberlain with Anthony Eden as Britain's prime minister; 2. promote British and French cooperation with Russia to give that country military leaders that would make Stalin's army valuable to himself and to a new three-power ring around Hitlerland; 3. immediate abandonment of all "diplomatic measures"; and 4. raise tariffs in all countries against import and export of German goods.

But, as most collegians believe, only time will tell the future of Europe—and of democracy throughout the world!

CAMPUS CAMERA

Around the Campus

Last Sunday afternoon, we sat by the radio listening to an NBC broadcast. At the conclusion of the program we left the radio on as is our habit, to see what the next program would be—we were surprised—we heard that very familiar theme song of the Ambassadors of Swing, College Dance Band. Well, maybe you heard them too. Anyway, the boys did a swell job and furthermore, they play any requests. Hope that everyone tunes in and maybe even sends in a request Sunday, April 16.

Yes, and High School Senior Day went over with a bang and the Ambassadors really put those "guys an' gals" through a swing session. Floor a little crowded and the music a little hot but we all got through it O. K.

The College campus was turned into a veritable Fifth Avenue Monday as a fitting setting for the parade of spring fashions exhibited by the visiting high school Seniors of Northwest Missouri. Wells, and brightly hued ones at that, caught this cub's eye and what went under those veils caught and held more than one other cub's eye, judging from my passing observations. The old stamping ground in the West Library upheld its reputation as the most popular spot in the student's opinion with the book store running a close second.

While we're on the subject of the book store this faithful snooper overheard a well directed criticism from one of our visitors to the effect that the book store could stand to have more men behind the counter in such times of stress, and ye snooper was inclined to agree after perching on one big toe nine minutes and fifty-nine and nine-tenths seconds before being served to one delicious package of gum. Well, enough for the visiting Seniors, who to all intents and purposes, had a wonderful time, and now back to family life.

It seems to me that the library has an oversupply of students and an undersupply of chairs this quarter. During the first few weeks of the Spring quarter I was inclined to believe that this condition was due to resolves to the effect that the final hours of this quarter would not be witnesses to any burning of midnight oil and a day I think what must be so hence and therefore I have already trimmed my wicks in preparation for that final night. However, back to my original subject (these spring days set my mind to wondering.) I firmly believe that either there are some freaks of nature who stick to their resolutions or as an alternative I have to offer the quotation: "In spring a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love", and where is there a better place to get into the mood, the spirit, or what have you than the library. All in favor of the latter statement say aye. The majority rules; the ayes have it.

Applying for a Position

Mr. John J. Jones, pres.
Podunk School Board
Podunk, Mo.
Dear Sir:

I am graduating from College this year. Me has a major in Practical Arts. Most of what I have been taught has been theory. Now I am ready to put some of it into practice. Kin you give me a job in your school? The reason I am writing to you is because all through College the one town I heard of was Podunk. I concluded that Podunk was the place to apply for a job.

I kin teach all right. Any way I got through my practice teaching courses here at the College, okay. I thought I was better than the supervisor did, but as they say in College, that is beside the issue.

Well anyhow will you please let me know by return mail if you can use a first rate teacher of Practical Arts. I will appreciate your service. Very truly yours,
Senior Smith.

P. S. I went in for plenty of extracurricular activities when I was in College. Let me know if you want details.

Dear Senior Smith:

What is Practical Arts? We ain't got no course such as that. An' I sort of doubts if we kin git the school board to put it in. Jest for you to teach it here. Say, you didn't mean Industrial Arts, well, we ain't got that either so either way we won't need you.

We has done rehired all our teachers fer next year. Here's hopin you have better luck some place else.

Very sandseerly,
John Jones
P. S. When I was in College I got a kick out of the activities, too.

(Thoughts of Senior Smith)
Well, I'll try a city school this time. That will require a considerable change of style. I'll make it brief and to the point.

Mr. Sanford B. Brown, pres.
4037 East High Blvd.
North End Branch Post Office
Chicago, Illinois
Dear Mr. Brown:

Have you an opening in your schools for a Practical Arts teacher?

The Stroller. . .

As one deer said to another, "(Hosh, I wish I had you doe!"

Did you know—That it is time to go to press again? that Easter time is the time for eggs and the time for eggs is Easter time? that Wordsworth believed in plain living and high thinking? that in the spring a young man isn't any different than he ever was? that life is so difficult that this isn't original? that The Stroller is in favor of four off days and one class meeting a week? that there are too many that's in this paragraph that I don't care if there are?

Senior day has come and gone leaving behind dirty halls, some new addresses, one tired Mr. Surrey, and a profit in the bookstore. The M. Club boys certainly had a field day, "guiding" some of the fairer sex around the campus. Marion Rogers thinks he had the best deal as he escorted 25 beautiful fems from Stanberry on a tour of inspection. Don Johnson and Dale Hackett spent the afternoon parading through the hall seeing how many unsuspecting girls they could attract. Dick Dempsey took it upon himself to be the personal host of one little blond high school girl. Now, girls, don't be too hard on the boys. After all you have them all to yourselves the whole year and besides they were just trying to help the Seniors feel at home.

If Ivan Schottel is missing from the campus one of these days, don't be alarmed. He has merely been kidnaped by an admiring gal from Savannah. She told Ivan that she adored his physique so much that she just thought she'd kidnap him.

Crash! It has been brought to the attention of The Stroller by numerous publicity men for Dean Walker that Mr. Walker is in the throes of romance. The gal in the case is Lucille Shisler. For further details consult the zodiac.

Hints to the co-eds: Don't go around looking like a pair of lions—down in the mouth.

Virginia Bowen has a new system for patching up romances. She kept two young swains waiting the other night while she sent a special delivery to Bob Darr. No delivery is too special for you, Bob.

Attention, Lonely Hearts' Club. Duck Dowell is looking for a nice piece of feminine pulchritude to do a little "buddying" with this spring. Address all replies to Duck in care of the Puritan Cafe.

There certainly are a lot of quiet romances going on. These couples may think because they do their wooing with lack of ballyhoo they have escaped The Stroller's eagle eye. But, nay, no so. Just glance around the halls any day and you will see Jim Powell carrying Irene Nelson's books, Bill McMullin trailing after Evelyn Badger, Raymond McClurg-looking for Ruth Mitchell.

Seen in front of Abe the other day: Charles "Long John" May strolling along arm in arm with Anabel Tapscott.

Now, at last, comes the time The Stroller has been looking forward to all quarter—Vacation time. Wool Wool!

It seems that a football owned by a certain person fondly referred to as "Oscar" is a possession anxiously coveted by M. F. S. . . . Here's luck to you kid. May your collection grow by leaps and bounds.

Jim: You know that Florence never would admit that she loved me.

Duncan: Yeah?

Wells: Yeah, But I finally squeezed it out of her.

ST. PAT'S JOKE

Erin Go Braugh!

An indignant Negro was led before the judge and when asked why he had been arrested replied, "Ah doan know, jedge. Ah was jest walkin' down the street mindin' mah own business an' hummin' a lil song to mahself when suddenly a big mick bops me ova the head an' then some Irish Cop arrests me."

"Humm," said the judge, "and what was it you were singing?"

"Oh jes, Ireland Mus Be Heaven Cause Mah Mudder Came From There."

I graduate from Teacher's College this spring.

I have been a brilliant student, done well in practice teaching and participated in extra-curricular activities.

Will you please let me know by return mail? I thank you.
Very sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:

We have no opening. However by way of encouragement may we suggest that you try one of the smaller schools in your local community. Thank you for your inquiry.
Yours,
Sanford B. Brown

(Thoughts of Senior Smith)
Well, they don't have practical Arts in these towns. Guess I'll have to sell life insurance. Well, I know. I have enough hours of Education to make a major in Supervision. I'll apply for another job.

Mr. Edward G. White
Harleysville, Mo.
Dear Sir:

I have been informed that your school is poorly supervised. I am just getting out of College this year. I will be fresh from a study of the subject and will probably be a bit of a supervisor.

I ought to. When I was in College I spent all my time in extra-curricular activities. Get the point? They said that was the way to get a good job.

Anyway I am a fine fellow, a brilliant student, an excellent teacher and of exceptionally good character. What more could you ask?
Cordially yours,
Senior Smith

Senior Smith
Teacher's College
Dear Smith:

I could ask no more. Your letter sounds swell. You must be a wonderful specimen. We shall be glad to have you teach in our school. We shall consider it a privilege.

The job is yours! You are hired. Yours for the ensuing year
Edward G. White, pres.
School Board

P. S. If you're not as nice a fellow as you say you are you won't get your job back the second year.

MORAL: Don't give up if you don't get the first school applied for. If at first you don't succeed try, try again.

Athletic Teams Had Splendid Record for Year 1938-1939

Football, Basketball Prospects For Next Season Appear Bright

By Kenneth Tobow
Missourian Sports Staff

One of the top ranking schools in the "toughest little loop in the U. S." is Maryville. Athletic performances this school year were exceptionally well performed.

With but a backward glance over the year's work, an interested person can see the splendid record achieved and a pre-season line-up on next year's teams.

Taking a brief step into football, it is seen that Maryville had one of the most remarkable teams in the country. The Bearcats ended the season with the enviable record of nine victories and no defeats. The small, hustling spark-plug of the Maryville backfield, Bill Bernau, landed in the pole position of the M.I.A.A. scoring standings as well as being one of the top scorers of the Midwest. In fact the entire United States. He won the unanimous vote of all concerned to be selected as captain of the all-star loop team. Stanley Pelc also received a unanimous vote at the fullback position.

Machine-Like Precision
Pelc was considered the best place kicker in the business by sports writers in the Midwest. He converted over two-thirds of his tries for the bar between the uprights.

No member of the squad was awarded a place on the Little All American team due to their consistency of working like a machine. No player tried to work for praise for himself but for the team as a whole. With the word "Maryville Bearcats" mopped across the pages of practically every newspaper in the Midwest, the dope baskets picked the Bearcats to win the title in the basketball season.

The Cats started the season with several wins but hit a one-point margin jinx. The local cagers began to lose close games because of their careless passing. They could hit but not consistent enough. The Bearcats lost one conference game away from home and won one conference game at home.

Quarter-Final Defeat
After the close of the season the Maryville players went to Kansas City to the National Intercollegiate Tournament where they were defeated in the quarter-finals by Southwestern who went on to win the championship.

The football squad, along with the Maryville high school squad, winners of the Northwest Missouri conference and the College high outfit, winners of the No. 275 loop, were guests at a banquet honoring the three on their winning their respective leagues. Newspapers as well as the team as a whole.

Cage Loss of Two
The basketball squad will lose Russell Dowell and Richard Shroat by graduation. Four men will be lost from the football squad. They are Clifton Cox, Jean Nickel, Ed Molitoris and Harry Irvine.

With Don Johnson as high point man scoring 112 points, the Bearcats amassed a total of 527 compared to their opponents 563 in the hard wood matches. Seven games were decided by one-point margins.

Between 45 and 50 men are working out with Coach Milner in spring football workouts. The outlook for next year is promising in both football and basketball. Practically the same squad will be on the floor next December when basketball practice begins.

Pitching, Hitting Are Apparent Baseball Faults

The Bearcats baseball team is slowly taking form. Its development has been hindered by bad weather, spring football and track, but Coach Ryland Milner gave the first real workout Monday and planned to follow it up with more severe training.

The first game of the season is to be played here a week from today (April 20), with the Rockhurst Hawks of Kansas City. Little is known as to the strength of the invaders.

The pitching staff is the weak spot on the Maryville squad. Coach Milner has several men out for that position, but does not know whether he can develop them into a dependable crew in one season or not. He believes that the pitching staff should be very strong to offset another weakness of the squad, that of hitting. No intensive batting practices have been held as yet, but weak hitting has been showing up strongly in the light practices so far.

Training has not progressed far enough for Coach Milner to have any definite idea as to what players will be on the starting line-up.

The games to be played with Baker university have not been set for any specific dates as yet.

Bearcat Claws . . .

by ken lawson

Some of you people who are now waiting on your ride home and who have nothing else to do might start reading back here on this part of the paper and as a result the space must be filled. The editor said so. Incidentally, there was no little amount of action this week which had to do with athletics and the athletic department. The results of the state meet have come out since the last issue and then of course on Monday there was the intra-mural track meet and the seniors of district high schools ran and drove up and down the streets as if they, too, were having a track meet. Tomorrow the track team will meet the knights of the cinder path from the Teachers college at Peru, Nebraska. Excitement, no end.

The Bearcats made a surprising showing in the state meet at Columbia last Friday. They won third place in the meet. Cape was second and Springfield was the runner-up. Max Mudd was the main point getter for the Bearcats, he took seven points by running a dead heat with Donald of Springfield in the half mile and taking second in the mile. Merrill Ostrus took six points for Maryville by running second in the high hurdles and second in the high jump. The Bearcats took 21 points in the meet and Cape garnered 45 to Springfield 41. There was only one record broken in the meet and that was by the former record holder in the shot put who threw the shot 43 feet 8 1/2 inches to beat his own record of 43 feet and 8 1/2 inches.

The Bearcat baseball team has been working out every day and the squad is slowly rounding in to form. The first game will be with Rockhurst of Kansas City, on the local diamond on Thursday, April 20.

Alfred ("Ike") Howell, Columbus, Ga., junior.

Dale Hackett, Burlington Junction, junior.

Neil Weary, Cainsville, junior.

Harold Hull, Maryville, sophomore.

Carroll Quentin Goslee, Skidmore, sophomore.

Harold Hutcheson, Hopkins, sophomore.

Russell Insley, Maryville, freshman.

Although Hackett is listed scholastically as a junior, he has two more years of competition.

The Bearcats played twenty games during the regular season and three in the national intercollegiate tourney. During the regular season Johnson, Goslee, Rogers, Walker and Hackett played in all the games.

Hull, because he was ineligible until the middle of January for conference games, didn't get to play

Robert Rogers, Jackson, Mo., junior.

Local Track Team Meets Peru, Neb., This Afternoon

20 Bearcats Leave With Coaches for Nebraska College

Inspired after an interesting intra-mural track meet last Monday held in connection with the annual High School Senior day, twenty Bearcats left this morning with Coaches Wilbur Stalcup and Ryland Milner for a track meet to be held this afternoon at the teachers' college in Peru, Neb.

After inspecting the little dope available on the Peru Bobcats, it was found that the Nebraska school has several lettermen on the roster for this afternoon's track and field duel.

Wayne Taylor, crack Bearcat freshman half-miler, had the coaches in doubt as to whether he would make the trip or not because of an injured leg at the time of this interview.

Stalcup has selected the squad, which will be as follows:

100-yard dash, Barton and McLaughlin; 220-yard dash, Barton and Burton; 440, Baker and Chapman; 880, Mudd and Reital; mile, Mudd and Long; 2 mile, Long and Turner; low hurdles, McLaughlin and Ostrus; high hurdles, Ostrus and McLaughlin; shot put, Zembles and Carter; discus, Carter and Irvine; pole vault, Darr; broad jump, Curtiss; javelin, Bernau and Goslee; high jump, Ostrus and Chapman; half mile relay, Burton, Barton, King and Weary.

against Rolla and Cape Girardeau on the road although he was taken on the trip.

Weary missed six games, three on account of injuries, and Shroat didn't get into one game because of an injury. Hutcheson played in the last five conference games but missed out on five during the regular season. Howell and Dowell played in all but six of the regular scheduled games, while Insley played in 12 of 20 games.

Several of the Bearcats received all-star recognition at the conclusion of their conference schedule. Harold Hull, the tall Maryville lad who played on the championship 1937 Spoofhound team, was juggled around from center to guard. Although he always had played an offensive game, he was shifted to a guard this season, alternating at center. The Associated Press, which took a poll of the coaches of the M.I.A.A. gave Rogers a guard position on the first team and Hull center position on the second team, naming Johnson and Hackett for honorable mention. Parke Carroll, sports editor of the Kansas City Journal, placed Hull on his first M.I.A.A. team and on his second all-Missouri team.

Croy Speaks on Educational Problem

Lack of knowledge about each other's problems was blamed for misunderstandings existing between college and high school teachers in a talk by Wallace Croy, principal of Maryville high school, before members of the Men's Forum Monday at their weekly luncheon meeting.

He urged that the teachers meet together both socially and for discussions of their work as an aid in solving the problems.

"High school teachers do not know enough of the college teachers' problems," he said, "likewise college teachers do not know the problems of high school teachers. They tend to blame the high school for the lack of knowledge students have on entering college. Yet it must be remembered, the college trains these teachers."

Mr. Croy expressed the belief that both institutions place too much emphasis on grades rather than on actual ability and character. He believes a function of the high school should pass on information with regard to all phases of a student's ability to the college as an aid in guiding each student vocationally.

He added that colleges find it necessary to weed out some of the students who were selected as college material by the high schools. "Colleges," he continued, "have not geared themselves to the fact that high schools are operating under mass education." He pointed out that both high schools and colleges duplicate in their teaching of general background work.

CONFLAGRATION

You small boys
Hiding behind outbuildings
With matches and "makin's"—
Corn silks and catalogs—
Burning your fingers,
Choking on smoke,
Making yourselves sick
By your own efforts,
Why do you do it?

Do you hope to hasten
The growth of
Hair on your chests,
Fuzz on your faces,
To increase your stature,
The depth of your voices?
Producing the opposite effect.
But you will do it—
I know you will do it—
I did it myself.

Bearcats Win 3rd Place in Annual M.I.A.A. Meet

Max Mudd is Star For STC Track Meet At Columbia Mo

Filling up a total of 21 points, Bearcats placed third in the M.I.A.A. indoor track meet at Columbia last Friday.

The local thin-clads were by diminutive Max Mudd who ed a second in the mile and dead heat with Donald of Springfield in the half mile.

The dope bucket was given a kick when Cape Girardeau out the favored Springfield by four points. Cape rolled up a total of 45 points to the Bears' 41.

High Point Man
Donald, the Springfield star, was high point man with 14 points. He was the "iron man" of the meeting, running the two mile, the mile and the half mile.

For such an early date, the cat tracksters came through some very good performances, ran one of the fastest miles collegiate career; Ostrus took first place in the low hurdles and should make things hot for the Cape barrier at the out-door meet.

Taylor Places Third
Wayne Taylor, former City star and present holder of district high school half mile, placed third in the event at the door meet and should be a content point winner in this even season.

In placing third in the mile the team of Baker, Reital, and McLaughlin should be a threat as the season progresses.

Now that they have a better conference foe, the boys run under the sign of the B. have a certain look in the same look that the championship football team had—the look of a champion.

Trip to Kansas City is Cancelled

The proposed trip to Kansas City, scheduled for the week of April 15 and 16, has been cancelled because it will be impossible to obtain the bus that date, it was announced week by Dr. Margaret Smith, director of personnel women.
